AV Ballet to Perform at Palmdale City Library

PALMDALE – The Antelope Valley Ballet will present a free performance at the Palmdale City Library, located at 700 E. Palmdale Blvd, on Saturday, Dec. 16 at 5:15 pm as a prelude to the American Classic Christmas event, scheduled for 6 to 9 pm at Poncitlán Square.

After the performance, the Library will remain open until 8 pm with limited services.

“Join us at the Palmdale City Library for a prelude to the festivities at the American Classic as the Antelope Valley Ballet brings to life a classic storybook,” said Assistant Library Director Debbie Petersen.

This event is sponsored by the Friends of the Palmdale City Library

The Antelope Valley Ballet was founded in the fall of 1998 by Kathleen Burnett and Lara Arnaiz. Their mission is to provide dancers from across the Antelope Valley region with professional quality performance opportunities in a company setting; to provide high quality performances locally and regionally, stimulating interest in and appreciation for dance as a performing art; to be a positive force in the cultural climate of the Antelope Valley and the state of California, interacting with and supporting all the arts.

The Palmdale City Library is open seven days a week. Hours of operation are Monday through Thursday from 10 am to 8 pm; Friday and Saturday from 10 am to 5 pm; and Sunday from 1 to 5 pm.
