Legacy Commons to Host “That’s Entertainment” Event

PALMDALE – The City of Palmdale’s Legacy Commons for Active Seniors, located at East Avenue Q-9, will host “That’s Entertainment,” on Thursday, Sept. 28 from 1 to 3 pm. The event is free and open to the public.

“That’s Entertainment” will feature Legacy Commons participants who will lip sync and dance in costume to popular songs, sing and perform poetry readings.

“There will be lots of fun, laughs, great music and inspiring readings from our Legacy Commons patrons,” said Palmdale Recreation Coordinator Laura Rice.

Legacy Commons provides adults age 55+ the opportunity to remain young-at-heart with a wide range of drop-in activities in a modern, contemporary center. Experience camaraderie, enhance your overall health, continue learning and foster self-reliance through our fitness and exercise classes, visual and performing arts programs, informational seminars and special interest groups. Adjacent Legacy Park features walking paths and picnic tables, bocce ball courts, horseshoe pits and a croquet lawn. Visitors are invited to pick up a detailed schedule of activities. No membership required.

Legacy Commons is located at 930 East Avenue Q-9, and is open Monday through Thursday, from 8 am to 4:30 pm and Friday’s from 8 am to 12 noon. For more information call Legacy Commons at 661/267-5904.
