Local Favorites The Fulcos to Perform at City of Palmdale's Free "Music in the Park" at Domenic Massari Park This Thursday

PALMDALE – The City of Palmdale's free "Music in the Parks" continues this Thursday, July 6 at Domenic Massari Park, located at 37716 55th St. East., with rock/pop music by The Fulcos from 5:30 to 7:30 pm.

Attendees are encouraged to bring a blanket or lawn chair to sit on. Attendees may bring food and non-alcoholic beverages. Food trucks will also be available on site.

The Fulcos are an American family that plays hard-hitting classic style rock, country and ballads. Doing things the old fashioned way, they have been building a huge live following by playing over 200 concerts per year. The band members are Joei, age 20, lead vocals, lead guitar and piano; Jesse, 18, bass; Stevie, 13, vocals, tambourine and percussion; and Tyler, 11 drums, guitar and vocals.

"Music in the Parks" takes place every Thursday evening from 5:30 to 7:30 pm, now through August 17, alternating between Poncitlán Square and Domenic Massari Park.

The musical line up will feature some long time popular groups in the Antelope Valley. The schedule features:

Thursday, July 13 – Runaway - Country

Location: Poncitlán Square
Food Trucks: Epic Tacos and LA Donuts

Thursday, July 20 – Seventh Switch – Power Rock
Domenic Massari Park
Food Trucks: TBD

Thursday, July 27 – Boulevard Knights – Latin Rock
